

caymancompass.com

Cayman journalists to attend UN conference

Staff

1-2 minutes

Kayla Young

Daphne Ewing-Chow

Two journalists from the Cayman Islands are among the 16 chosen from the Caribbean and beyond to participate in the 'Islands Voices' programme organised and funded by the United Nations.

Kayla Young, from the Cayman Compass, and Daphne Ewing-

Chow, from the online Loop Cayman news service, are headed to New York this weekend where UN members will be attending a summit from 23-27 Sept. focussing on sustainable development goals, climate change, universal healthcare, development financing and other issues affecting small island states.

HEALTH CITY
Cayman Islands

Healthy looks different on everyone

BOOK YOUR HEALTH CHECK TODAY! >

WELCOME TO CAYMAN

NEW HIGH-END PUBLICATION FEATURING THE BEAUTY, ATTRACTIONS,
AND CULTURE OF THE ISLANDS. BE A PART OF THE WARM
WELCOME FOR ALL WHO ENJOY OUR ISLANDS.

Booking deadline: Wednesday, 12 October

 COMPASS MEDIA

On Saturday, 18 Sept., the reigning Miss Cayman Islands Universe, Mariah Tibbetts, passed her crown to the winner of the 2021 pageant. Georgina Kerford beat eight other contestants to walk away with the title, and already her life has become a whirlwind of public appearances. Vicki Wheaton sat down with her two days into her reign to find out what inspired her to enter the competition, and what she is looking forward to in the coming year. Read more at www.caymancompass.com.

0 seconds of 8 minutes, 14 seconds Volume 90%